

(This declaration should be given by the exhibitor duly signed by the authorised person of the company and stamped on their letterhead at the time of booking of IIJS 2009, without which the application will not be accepted.)

DECLARATION

1. We hereby declare that we understand and agree:

a) That IIJS 2009 will be held at a temporary exhibition venue which is not a permanent convention centre.

b) That although the Council will try its best to provide different amenities such as bathrooms, drainage systems, fire fighting systems/equipments, temperature cooling systems /apparatus, proper ambience, lighting of stalls etc. the same may either malfunction / not function / breakdown, for which we shall not hold the Council responsible in any manner whatsoever even though such malfunction / non function / breakdown may cause difficulties / inconveniences/ temporary closure of IIJS 2009.

c) That although the Council will try its best to provide eatables through different cafeterias, coffee shops, cafés, the same could be below par at times, being perishable in nature, for which we shall not hold the Council responsible in any manner whatsoever

d) That we shall not hold the Council responsible for any quality problems in case of eatables and malfunctioning, non-functioning of any such systems ,equipments or apparatus which will be hired/used for providing the abovementioned services/amenities/facilities

2. We also irrevocably agree and declare that due to any breakdown or malfunctioning of the equipment/facilities as described above or if at any point of time before, during or after the show any director/partner/employee/s of our Company are directly or indirectly a party to any agitation, misbehaviour or any act/deed which may bring disrepute to the show, which is of national importance, or by which the image of the IIJS 2009 or that of the Council may be tarnished or suffers then the Council shall at its sole discretion have the right to:

a) Close down the stall immediately for the entire duration of IIJS without any compensation/refund of any sort thereof;

b) Remove all our belongings forthwith if we do not remove them ourselves. In such an event the Council will not be held responsible for any loss and/ or damage and /or misplacement of such property/properties belonging to us;

c) Debar the proprietor and / or partner and / or directors of the company and all such company/ies where any of the proprietor/director/partner is a part in the capacity of proprietor/partner/director or a bonafide employee, to participate in any future exhibitions, including IIJS and/or functions which may be organised by the Council

Name: _____ Designation: _____

Signature: _____

Date : _____

Company Stamp: